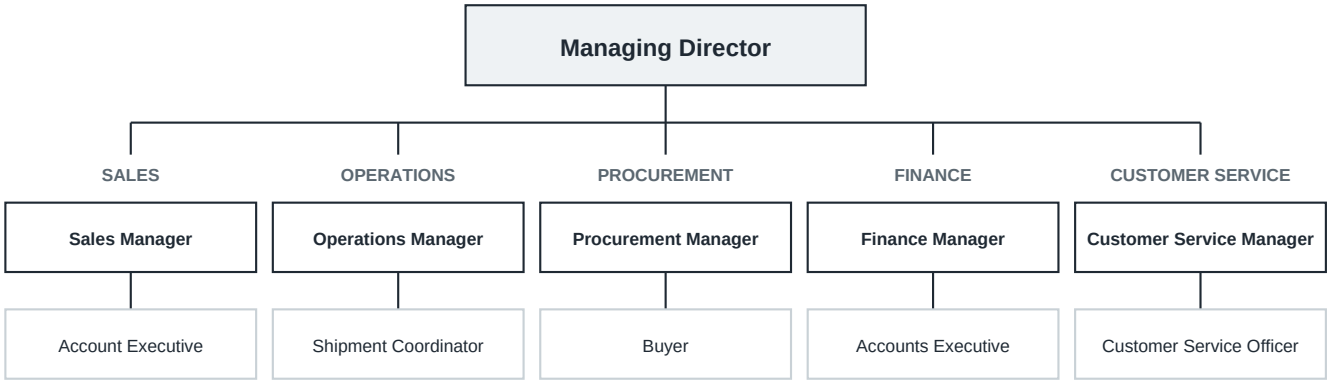
Larkspur Bay Logistics Pte. Ltd.

Organization Chart

Company Profile

Larkspur Bay Logistics is a freight forwarding and warehousing company in Singapore with about 120 employees. The Managing Director leads five departments: Sales, Operations, Procurement, Finance and Customer Service.

Structure



Reporting Lines

Role	Department	Reports to
Managing Director	-	-
Sales Manager	Sales	Managing Director
Account Executive	Sales	Sales Manager
Operations Manager	Operations	Managing Director
Shipment Coordinator	Operations	Operations Manager
Procurement Manager	Procurement	Managing Director
Buyer	Procurement	Procurement Manager
Finance Manager	Finance	Managing Director
Accounts Executive	Finance	Finance Manager
Customer Service Manager	Customer Service	Managing Director
Customer Service Officer	Customer Service	Customer Service Manager

Role Responsibilities

Role	Responsibilities
Managing Director	Leads the company and the management team in Singapore.
Sales Manager	Leads the sales team and the company's largest customer accounts.
Account Executive	Quotes freight rates and takes customer bookings.
Operations Manager	Runs the warehouse and trucking fleet and approves the department's purchase needs.
Shipment Coordinator	Plans pick-ups and deliveries and raises operational purchase requests.
Procurement Manager	Chooses suppliers and signs purchase orders.
Buyer	Collects supplier quotations and places purchase orders.
Finance Manager	Owns budgets, payments and customer credit decisions.

Accounts Executive	Invoices customers, matches supplier invoices to purchase orders and pays suppliers.
Customer Service Manager	Leads customer service and handles escalated customer complaints.
Customer Service Officer	Answers customers, logs complaints and raises credit requests.

Larkspur Bay Logistics Pte. Ltd. is a fictional company. This document is sample data for testing OrgFlow.