Wattle Creek Medical Group Pty Ltd

Organisation Chart

Company Profile

Wattle Creek Medical Group runs four general practice clinics in Brisbane, Queensland, with about 120 staff. The Chief Executive Officer leads five departments: Clinical Services, Practice Operations, Patient Services, People & Culture and Finance.

Structure

Reporting Lines

Role	Department	Reports to
Chief Executive Officer	-	-
Clinical Director	Clinical Services	Chief Executive Officer
General Practitioner	Clinical Services	Clinical Director
Operations Manager	Practice Operations	Chief Executive Officer
Practice Coordinator	Practice Operations	Operations Manager
Patient Services Manager	Patient Services	Chief Executive Officer
Receptionist	Patient Services	Patient Services Manager
People & Culture Manager	People & Culture	Chief Executive Officer
HR Advisor	People & Culture	People & Culture Manager
Finance Manager	Finance	Chief Executive Officer
Accounts Officer	Finance	Finance Manager

Role Responsibilities

Role	Responsibilities
Chief Executive Officer	Leads the group and its management team.
Clinical Director	Leads the clinicians and signs off on clinical equipment.
General Practitioner	Sees patients and requests clinical equipment and supplies.
Operations Manager	Runs the clinics, the rosters and purchasing, and approves the clinics' purchases.
Practice Coordinator	Raises purchase requests and keeps each clinic stocked.
Patient Services Manager	Leads reception and handles patient complaints.

Receptionist	Books appointments, takes payments and logs refund requests.
People & Culture Manager	Owns recruitment and onboarding.
HR Advisor	Checks new clinicians' registration and prepares their contracts.
Finance Manager	Owns budgets, payments and the group's accounts.
Accounts Officer	Pays suppliers and processes patient refunds.

Wattle Creek Medical Group Pty Ltd is a fictional company. This document is sample data for trying OrgFlow.